

Draft Programme

Venue:

CE.F.M.E

Centro per la Formazione delle Maestranze Edili ed Affini di Roma e Provincia
Centre for the formation of building workers and technicians
Via Monte Cervino 8
00040 Pomezia

Day 1: 21 June, Thursday

Opening speeches and policy context:

- Rossella Martino, Co-director of Formedil, National Organisation for training in the construction sector: How the system works.
- Fernando Santucci, Director of CE.F.M.E: Training in the construction sector.
- Alessandra Tomai, Ministry of Labour
- Ismene Tramontano, Isfol, National Reference Point in Italy
- Sean Feerick, Director, EQAVET Secretariat

9:30

Introduction to the seminar:

- Sophie Weisswange, European Commission, chair of the EQAVET Network: The importance of the EQAVET Reference Framework (tbc)
- Kim Faurschou, EQAVET Expert: presentation of the background paper

10:30

Theme 1: The Italian approach to quality assurance in VET - how the quality in the construction sector is ensured? The initial training, apprenticeship and continuing training

Key note speech: Rossella Martino, Formedil

Café-table discussion topics:

- Different models and systems to secure the quality.
- How to secure the career possibilities?
- How to reduce drop-out?
- How to attract young people? (the image of the sector)

11:30

Reports from café-tables: identification of emerging issues, trends and messages from discussion at the café-tables theme 1.
Moderator: Kim Faurschou, EQAVET Expert

11:45

Coffee break

12:00

Theme 2: How to make the education up to date in the construction sector. Focus on high training and education.

Key note speech: Cristina Bianchi, director of training school of Piacenza

Café-table discussion topics:

- Models and structures for how to make the education up to date.
- Preconditions, advantages, disadvantages of the different models and structures.
- National, regional and European perspectives on the future skills.
- How new technology can change training and education paths.

13:00 Reports from café-tables: identification of emerging issues, trends and messages from discussion at the café-tables theme 2.
Moderator: Kim Faurschou, EQAVET Expert

13:15 Lunch

14:15 Study visit: CE.F.M.E College Tour

15:30 Theme 3: Validation of formal, non-formal and informal learning in the construction sector.

Key note speech: Filippo Bignami, Formedil expert, and Mariagrazia Veronesi, expert from the training school of Verona

Café-table discussion topics:

- Different forms of learning validation.
- Tools to assess competences, skills and knowledge.
- How to ensure the quality of the learning through the different types of validation.
- Validation assessor's features and requirements.

16:30 Reports from café-tables: identification of emerging issues, trends and messages from discussion at the café-tables theme 3.
Moderator: Kim Faurschou, EQAVET Expert

20.30 Dinner in Rome

Day 2: 22 June, Friday

10:00 Theme 4: Health and safety in the construction sector.

Key note speech: Giovanni Carapella, Director, Formedil

Café-table discussion topics:

- Health and safety as a part of a high quality education.
- The importance of safety and health in a sector with a high level of accidents.
- Transfer of good practices across systems and Member States.

11:00 Reports from café-tables: identification of emerging issues, trends and messages from discussion at the café-tables theme 4.
Moderator: Kim Faurschou, EQAVET Expert

11:15 Coffee break

11:30 Final remarks

12:30 Lunch